Translation:

1) O jiva, why have you become like a fish fallen into Maya's net? You do not know that you will be trapped in that net for a very long time.

2) Yearning to taste pathetic pleasures, you remain trapped in Maya's net. Your life is unnatural. You are sick at heart. Dependent on others, you are punished again and again.

3) By the power of devotional service, you will be set free. Playing in the ocean of love for Krsna, you will take shelter of Krsna and be His servant.
