

Song Name: Ar Koto Kal
Author: Mira Bhāi

(refrain)

ār koto kāl, giridhārī lāl
ārāle ārāle robe

(1)

nayaneri jāl jhori abiro
daraśana pābo kabe

tomār caraṇa prabhu niyechi saraṇa pujār kusūm sama ei tanu mana akul āmār ei maram meri āśā
tabe ki biphale jābe

(3)

dekha jadi nāhi dibe aganir doyā
tabe keno dile āśā bhoriyā ḥḍoy
mirār parāṇe tomāri kāmanā
daraśana pābo kabe

TRANSLATION

After how long will I see You, O darling Giridhari Lal? Until then, I will simply remain here, waiting and waiting!

1) Tears are flowing incessantly from my eyes. O when will I attain Your vision? Until then waiting.

2) O Lord, I have taken shelter of Your lotus feet. In Your worship, I offer my body and mind as flowers. My heart is fervent with these aspirations. Will they go unfulfilled? Until then waiting.

3) If You will not give me a glimpse of Yourself out of limitless mercy, then why have You given me this desire that completely fills my heart? O life and soul of Mira! My desire is only for You! O
