Translation:

1. O Lord Gaurài ga, please don't withhold Your mercy from me. Please give me shelter at Your reddish feet.
2. I gave up everything to approach Your feet. I take shelter at Your cooling feet.
3. I place three handfuls of water and sesame at the funeral of my past emotional attachment to my kinsmen. Now I am attached to You alone. Please give me shelter at Your feet.
4. Väsudeva Ghoña says: O Lord, I grasp Your feet. Please be kind and give me protection in the shade of Your feet.
